"I CAN"

I cannot walk, or run or play a game of tennis every day. I cannot dance or ride a bike, I'll never know what skating is like. I have no soccer boots or ball. They are no use to me at all. I'll never ski the waves or snow. So many thrills I'll never know. I'll never sail the wind or surf or chase a ball across the turf, nor climb the snow-capped peaks above – so many things I'll never love.

But I CAN ride through forest trails to see the fox and rabbit tails. And watch the geese and ducks take flight while leaping stags and deer take flight. And I CAN follow mountain tracks past climbers weighted down with packs to trace a river to its source astride the broad back of a horse. Yes, I enjoy the "Sport of Kings" when carried high my feet take wings to fly me on a pleasure course, for I CAN mount and ride a horse.
